

EMPLOYEE PAID TIME OFF TO VOTE

N.Y. Election Law Section 3-110

- A registered voter may, without loss of pay for up to two hours, take off so much working time as will enable the voter to vote at any election if the voter does not have four consecutive hours either between the opening of the polls and the beginning of work, or between the end of work and the closing of the polls.
- You may take time off at the beginning or end of your work shift, as your employer may designate, unless otherwise mutually agreed.
- You must notify your employer no more than 10 working days and no less than two working days before the day of election that you will take time off to vote.
